

ENERGYWERX

EnergyWerx is a joint venture led by ETI with a vision to transform the energy landscape in Robeson County, North Carolina. It will be an innovation hub for the Department of Energy that focuses on clean energy, sustainable infrastructure, and climate resiliency. Our coalition of nonprofit and for profit organizations will work together to foster innovation, entrepreneurship, education, workforce development, and business assistance to build a brighter future for the county and the surrounding areas.

