

The Marshall Plan for Middle America (MP4MA) Coalition is a strategic partnership with a mission to advance a regional renewable and economic transition in the Ohio River Valley & Upper Appalachia region. It was created in partnership with the City of Pittsburgh and 8 cities in Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky; ReImagine Appalachia; Heartland Capital Strategies; and Resilient Cities Catalyst. Collectively it is expanding its resources and capabilities to draw on deep local expertise and local and regional leadership, including fostering strong relationships with unions and local community-based organizations.
