

Summary:

A KPI platform for the utility industry that simplifies the process of evaluating and selecting analytical models.

Over 100 unique models for inertia estimation using PMU data alone have been released in the past 3 years.

No standard metric for accuracy for any of these models.

Difficult for analysts to continuously compare models under different scenarios.