

Need/Challenge: The district's primary challenge is that it must make a variety of energy efficiency upgrades in what are primarily older buildings featuring outdated energy supply methods and technologies.

Proposed Facilities to Address: The project will address three schools in Paris Union School District 95: the Creative Center for Children (a preschool), Carolyn Wenz Elementary School, and Memorial Middle School.

Impact: The proposed project will contribute to enhanced energy management and efficiency within Paris Union School District 95.

Team: The district's Energy Champions include Maintenance Director Kevin Grant, IT Director Nathan Bell, IT staff member Josh Millis, and maintenance staff members Austin Redmon, Dylan Redmon, Randy Crunk, and Chris Freeman.
