

Community Solar Baltimore!

- Baltimore City urban infill developer – built 2.5 MM square feet over 75 acres in City
- Experienced Brownfield developer including a former Exxon oil refinery
- Successful track record working with multiple neighborhood organizations
- Experienced at administering and servicing utility bills
- Expanded business line into community solar development
- Three arrays built and operational totaling 690 kW
- One 514 kW array in process
- 7.8 MW project pipeline (each has at least two meaningful benefits)
- Philanthropy causes – Hope Village, Weekend Backpack Program