

Mana Pacific, Inc. – What We Do

We Deliver Resilient, Renewable Energy Solutions to Pacific Island States, Nations, and Territories.

As Hawaiʻian sustainable business corporation and project developer, we look at projects over their entire life cycle, and prioritize people, planet, and prosperity while doing it.

Mana Pacific – About Us and Testimonial Video

Trailer – The Pacific Journey Documentary

We are certified by the Global Solar Impulse Foundation™ for utilizing a scalable, efficient, and profitable developer approach to significantly impact the environment.

Our Community Solar Projects on Molokaʻi are the first on the island and the first 100% community-owned and designed projects in the State of Hawaii.

General Details

- 1,500 households of all local Molokaʻi LMI residents
- 10-25% electricity bill savings for all subscribers
- 100% community-owned through the Hoʻāhu Coop
- Strengthens resiliency with extreme weather Resilience Hub location
- Equitable workforce development programs 2022-2023

Technical Details

- Two community solar project sites on Molokaʻi
- 3.6MW DC solar PV and 14.9MWh battery storage
- Canadian solar bifacial panels 540w
- SMA SHP 125 string inverters
- Powin centipede stack 750 BESS