

GREEN HOMES ALLIANCE: AFFORDABLE EFFICIENCY

We are a collaborative initiative aimed at retrofitting and upgrading single-family homes with energy-efficient solutions, making them more sustainable and affordable for low-income households.

The program brings together various stakeholders, including government agencies, nonprofit organizations, energy companies, and community members.

The program's primary objective is to address the energy efficiency and affordability challenges faced by the low-income community