

A / C / R / E

ACRE (Community, Renewables & Electrification) is centering rural communities in the energy transition through finance and deployment strategies for building decarbonization and resilience.

Balancing rural energy co-ops and energy service companies' need to stabilize and decarbonize the electrical grid...

...with community customers' needs for simple and affordable ways to save time and money while keeping occupants comfortable.

Decarbonization // Resilience // Grid Integration