

Innovative Development and Financing of Industrial Waste Heat to Power in New York's Southern Tier

Competitor

- Kanin Energy, Inc.

Industrial Partner / Clean Energy Technology

- World-leading ceramics and glass manufacturer / Industrial Waste Heat to Power

Rural Community Benefited (Population)

- Erwin, NY (8,090)

Project Goal: Finance Track

- Demonstrate a unique financing model that shifts investment risk from corporate to traditional infrastructure capital and removes barriers to the delivery of industrial clean energy projects

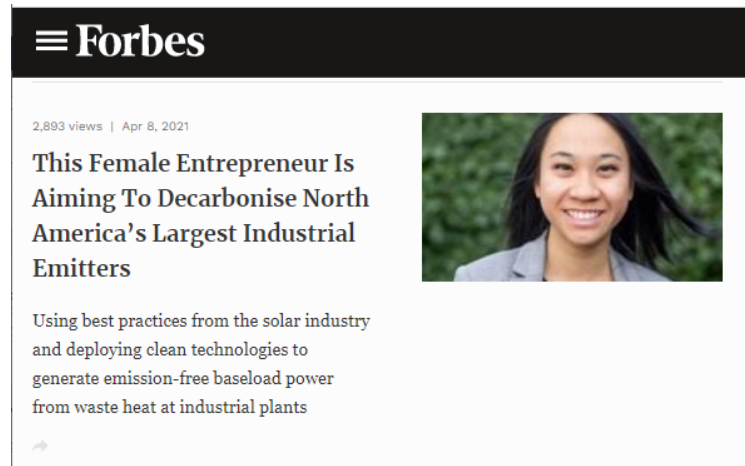

Phase 2 Objectives

- Techno-economic feasibility investigation
- Commence community engagement beyond Corning
- Execute term sheets for contractual agreements

Presented by:

Kanin»Energy

Kanin Energy is a clean energy company that focuses on transforming industrial waste heat into emission free baseload power – at no cost to facilities.

Janice Tran, CEO Kanin Energy