

Power Trip EV Mobile Electric Vehicle Solutions

Welcome to Power Trip EV Mobile solutions where we bring the charge to you. Our company was founded on the principles of no man left behind. We have created a solution to provide electric vehicle charging for your car, truck or fleet no matter where you are because we come directly to you. Our team is comprised of some of the best minds of their generation and industry.

Our mission is to reduce range anxiety by providing mobile charging anywhere at any time by bringing our DC fast charger to our customers to re-charge their vehicle.

Our team:

Regina Miller is the Founder of the company with she is a natural entrepreneur currently running a staffing consulting company and providing workforce planning for companies throughout the U.S. Her background is placing candidates with companies in rural locations and being a resource for contingent staffing.

Ray Roundtree is the Chief Operations Officer currently serving as the Finance and Insurance Manager at Gwinnett Place Nissan. He has 11 years of experience in commercial fleet sales and strategic partnerships. He brings to the team a wealth of knowledge on new innovative ways to introduce mobile online sales to customers.

Jorge Rodriguez PH. D is the Capstone Projects Coordinator/Instructor for Engineering at UGA College of Athens. He currently manages UGA College's Capstone program and works to partner with companies to Engineer their products. He brings years of experience creating roadmaps for products, giving lectures in Mechanical Engineering and mentoring college seniors through 12-month programs.

Sam Pittman is the Founder of Sunteque Clean energy he has over 5 years of experience building solar farms and Microgrids for businesses allowing them to obtain clean renewable energy. He brings his expertise to build out our energy source for our mobile products and service.

Sheba Stepps is an Electrical Engineer currently working for the Atlanta Metropolitan State College as the Electrical Instructor. She has over 12 years of industry experience in the electrical industry and is a member of the IBEW local 613. She brings knowledge and training experience to train Maintenance Technicians to maintain the equipment and provide charging services for the customers.

Sarah Mosteller is the Director of Client Relations for Smart Marketing Advertising Agency. She has many years of experience helping businesses build their brand and marketing their company to a wide audience. She will bring her expertise in creating SEO branding, Marketing Channels, Advertisement and Geo Farming for customers.