

Rural People's Voice + Firelands Workers United

Building an economy that works for working people in rural Washington.

2023

Rural People's Voice and Firelands Workers United, Washington State's leading rural organizing community-based nonprofits, are putting statewide and hyper-local healthy homes assessments to work to build energy efficient homes and economic opportunity, while writing a new climate narrative in rural, working-class neighborhoods.

