

Electrify Burlington | Co-Creating Policy with Community

The City of Burlington has made significant progress on building decarbonization policies for new construction and commercial buildings. Burlington is now ready to focus on existing residential buildings.

The Electrify Burlington Team will identify a set of Community Advisors to co-create residential decarbonization policies and programs in collaboration with existing community networks, centering the priorities of the city's most disadvantaged communities and ensuring equitable outcomes for all Burlingtonians.

Electrify Burlington Team

Healthy, Affordable
Fossil Fuel-Free
Housing for All

Affordability

Health & Safety Repairs

Tenant Protections

Economic Opportunity

Transparency & Iteration

Community Advisors Model

Customer Economics Analysis

Existing Building Policy Review

Cold Climate Policy Review