

MCE Buildings UP: Transforming Multifamily Homes

MCE, a not-for-profit, public renewable energy provider in the Bay Area, is partnering with the Association for Energy Affordability (AEA), five community-based organizations, and a local governmental agency to provide up to $8,500 in combined incentives for 140 units in low-income multifamily buildings for energy efficiency and electrification upgrades.