

Power Initiative

The PowerUP Initiative aims to electrify underserved communities through energy audits, retrofitting buildings with innovative technologies, and providing recommendations for upgrading insulation, ventilation, appliances, and heating/cooling systems. The Initiative's goals include reducing greenhouse gas emissions, improving public health, creating employment opportunities, and offering comprehensive training for individuals interested in pursuing careers in the trades industry.