

Technical Assistance Request

We are looking for technical assistance in two areas.

1. Expertise or experience in refining and improving machine learning scripts that are used on imagery.
2. Expertise on building the value of installed solar based on age of the panels and the type of panels and equipment.
3. Expertise on building the solar economic model for a home that does not have solar including calculating the payback period across different U.S. geographies.