

Community Power Accelerator Prize

Team Name:	Solevad Consulting
City and State:	Dallas, Texas
Submission Title:	Solar Unity: Empowering Communities, Energizing Lives

Community
Power
Accelerator

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Organization Overview

- Team Solevad is a conglomerate of individuals who have deep interests in community empowerment and development.
- Solevad's mission is to design today's future communities by building a legacy of infrastructure improvements that will enhance the quality of life for the future generation.
- This will be done by connecting businesses, ideas, and people for greater impact by offering human-centered designs that are tailored to the specific need of the entity or community.

Project Overview

- St. Philip's School and Community Center Community Solar Project is a 750 kW system located at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Dallas TX 75215.
- Frazier Revitalization Community Solar located in South Dallas will be a 150 Kw System.
- Multifamily Housing Community Solar project located in the underserved community of South Dallas will host a 250-kW system.

Meaningful Benefits

- All the 5 Meaningful benefits will be incorporated into this project which include
 - Resiliency
 - Greater Household Access
 - LMI Access
 - Workforce Development
 - Community Ownership