

Residential Energy Assessment for Equity in Energy

Greener CASA, an Energy Equity partnership to help low-income households in disadvantage communities to reduce their electric bills by performing energy assessments.

The UT Tyler and Monarca Initiative team will offer education and free energy audits to selected beneficiaries, which includes a free energy kit as a token for participating in this initiative.

