

Community-Owned Solar in Houston Disadvantaged Communities

Train students as solar ambassadors to bring virtual net-metering to deregulated Houston to allow disadvantaged communities to own and benefit from solar energy. We will create the market demand by building out a minimum of 1 MW of distributed, modular, expandable solar arrays at participating host sites with community members interested in ownership.

