

Clean Energy Equity & Access for Native Hawaiian Households

Community

- Native Hawaiian households on Department of Hawaiian Homestead (DHHL) properties, Oahu Hawai'i

Energy- Related Challenges

- Inequitable Access to Energy Programs
- High Energy Burden / Highest Energy Costs in the Country
- Aging Homes / Inefficient Appliances
- Barriers to Solar Photovoltaic Systems / Battery Storage / Electric Vehicle Charging Stations
- Energy Literacy Gaps
- High Installation & Operating Costs
- Limited Workforce Development

Team Members

Hawai'i-based clean energy company; industry leader in energy program development and scaling, data analytics, machine learning, technology integration.

Clean energy program administrator for the State, educates and informs individuals and businesses about clean energy benefits while providing incentives programs.

Registered 501(c)3 nonprofit, community-based organization, based in Waimānalo with over a decade of experience on successful community support programs.

Founded in 2006, local nonprofit that has created a movement to promote self-reliance and community, while respecting Native culture and traditions.