

Ke Ala Hanau Moku: Rebirth of a Just Community

Leeward Empowerment Initiatives (LEI) Foundation led by Sharlette Poe, 7th Generation Lineal Descendant of the Wai'anae Moku

- Ke Ala Hanau Moku: Rebirth of a Just Community bridges 21st century technology with our ancestral knowledge for generational Community thriving.
- Meeting the energy needs of Waianae Moku (zipcode 96792) residents, starting in the five Hawaiian Homelands Homesteads, who have rooftops but are economically and physically unable to mount solar on their structures yet experience energy insecurity daily and pay some of the highest energy costs.

LEI Foundation's Key Partners

- Parker Kushima, Outreach & Community Engagement Specialist of the Hawaii State Energy Office, and Clean Energy Wayfinder Coordinator.
- Lauren Ballisteros-Watanabe, Chapter Organizer of Sierra Club Hawaii, Lead for the Youth Leadership Development Program
- Kapua Keliikoa-Kamai, long-time resident of the Wai'anae Valley Homestead in the Wai'anae Moku and President of the Wai'anae Sustainability Co-operative
