

CLEAN TRANSPORTATION & GRID SOLUTIONS - NORWALK CA

Team Shorepower Technologies

Jeff Kim/ Shorepower Technologies Inc. - Project Developer - EV Charging Technology
Zachary Henkin/ Center for Sustainable Energy - Community EV/EVI Program Director
Angel Centeno/ Norwalk Transportation Center - Facilities Manager
Evey Winther/ Shorepower Technologies Inc. - Business Development Specialist

- Disadvantaged Community of Norwalk CA
5 mile radius around the Norwalk Transportation Center
- Energy Challenges
 - Environmental Justice Issues – Lack of equitable access to clean energy technology
Limited Electric Vehicle charging capacity
 - Air Quality Issues – Related to toxics released by the transportation sector
PM 2.5, Ozone, Toxic Pollutants
 - High Energy Costs
 - Grid Load and Demand Charges for EV and e-BUS charging
- Invited Partners To Date
 - City of Norwalk, the Norwalk Transportation Center, the Southern California Association of Governments, ET Community of CA, local community advocates, air quality experts, local utilities, and CA Electric Vehicle (EV) charging coalitions

