

Solve It for Sustainability in Solar Valley

Solving it for Sustainability is a public-private partnership with a cohort approach to engage our community, businesses, and residents towards a more sustainable future in Solar Valley (Coachella, CA; Perris, CA, and San Bernardino, CA).

Supported by:

- City of Coachella
- Congressman for the 39th District of California, Mark Takano
- Larta Institute
- San Bernardino County Transportation Authority/San Bernardino Council of Governments
