

The Display Equation Window Insert is a clear, double paned acrylic window insert with an airtight gasket that pressure fits into the interior of an existing window frame. DE's Insert is an affordable, convenient and efficient way to insulate your windows. Simple installation does not require demolition or construction. The Display Equation Insert will improve the comfort level of any office or building, reduce its energy consumption, noise levels and save money. Display Equation, LLC has manufacturing facilities in Paterson NJ& Rockland County NY.