

1) App controls the buoy.

2) Buoy data received by the app.

3) App displays data in easy way.

A) In real time data, a map with all stations are available to choose. Once you choose your buoy, you can favorite it to be on your favorite list.

B-C) The information that are displayed for researchers are more detailed and provide a way to analyze the information, by making scientific charts and viewing history of the data.

D) An educational part with drawings, videos of information about the ocean life, created by our team.

