

The Dual Buoy Unit is an efficient, effective, light weight, low cost, easily transported, easily and quickly deployed device for providing deionized water. Installed close to the shore line just beyond the breakers it produces high pressure sea water that is fed directly into a reverse osmosis unit to generate pure water in emergency situations.